Enclosing copy of my letter to him of 11 Oct 1821

Williamsburgh 6th Feb/ 1827Mr. Wm. Carlisle
Sir

I have rec^d your letter of 9th Jan^y, enclosing seven Dollars to discharge the taxes on J. Owens land, which I will see is done, without any cost to him. It was not intended ^{never expected} to make any cost on his, but was thought best to adventure the whole, for certain reasons. - I shall charge nothing for my trouble -

The letter which I mentioned respecting an exchange was dated 11th Oct 1825. & put in the mail the same day. As it contained a vest for his taxes that year I think you must have received it or you would have been likely to have inquired farther for the receipt. ^{you cannot recollect it to} but as it may not come to light again I now enclose a copy of it. that you may judge whether the bargain be desirable - perhaps I should now make some variation as to the number or description of the Maps - You will observe that I should not make the proposition for the sake of the land for it would be worth very little to me, but I am disposed to accommodate Mr. Owens as far as I can, & think so that he might find a sale for the Maps, in New Hampshire, more to his advantage than to keep the land - Please to let me hear from you soon - In great haste

With respect Yours &c

M. G.

P.S.

I should have answered you sooner, but have been absent ~~some~~ ^{several} weeks & have but just returned
